Open Issues

Speaker 1 → He believed that he is against brain drain that people of his country shift to other ~~oth~~ countries to contribute in the development instead of staying in their own nation and using their knowledge to develop their own country.

Speaker 2 → she spoke against the first speaker and told that she is in support of brain drain as people have the right to do whatever they want

Speaker 3 → she supported the second speaker and told that if anyone is getting more money for the use of his/her knowledge then obviously he/she will go abroad.

Speaker 4 → According to him brain drain is that, it is not a good decision to leave your own country back and who had given you the opportunity to educate and the government who had spent a lot of money on your education.

Speaker 3 → she opposed speaker 4 by telling that the person has the right to choose whatever he want no matter who had funded him for his education.

Speaker 5 → He spoke that other countries pay half of the fees for their students to educate.

Speaker 6 → He tells speaker 5 that the countries which are spending money for the entire education are developed countries and we are not. so we need young and brilliant minds for our countries development.

The conversation carries along for the next 10 minutes on topics like humanity, social work, infrastructure development, employment, big Unich getting their degree from abroad etc.

After a healthy discussion the meeting organizer tells every one to summarize their thoughts.

Conclusion -

After summarizing their thoughts; speaker 6, 4, 1 spoke in against of brain drain and told that it is everyone's responsibility to serve their own nation whereas speaker 5, 3, 2 spoke in favour of brain drain because they think that everyone has the right to decide what's best for them.
